5. Domus Officer
6. Women's Officer
7. LGBT+ Officer
8. Equality Officer

1. ceases to be a Member;
2. resigns by giving notice in writing to the Secretary;
3. dies or is incapacitated by mental or physical ill health;
4. is removed from office.

A casual vacancy also occurs if a position enumerated in Section 1 is not filled at the Michaelmas election, either due to no Member being nominated, or to the withdrawal of all candidates for the position before the Election. An Officer giving notice of their resignation may stipulate that it take effect upon a date in the four weeks following their notice. In this case, procedures specified by these Standing Orders to replace that Officer may be used immediately, but shall only take effect from the date of resignation.

3. Vacancy Powers. When a vacancy occurs among those Trustees not explicitly enumerated in Article IV Section 6, either the Executive or a vote at a General Meeting may appoint a Member to fill that vacancy. Any member so appointed shall serve until the new Executive takes office. No Member may be appointed to fill a vacancy unless they would be eligible to stand as a candidate in a by-election to fill the same vacancy. For the purpose of this section, there are four Social Secretaries; if fewer than four Social Secretaries are elected at the Michaelmas election, then the Executive or a vote at a General Meeting may choose to appoint additional Social Secretaries, up to four in total.

4. Vacancy of an Officer. During the period between the vacancy arising and a new officer being elected, the President may either take on that officer's duties him/herself, or assign them to another willing officer. If the position of President is vacant, then the duties of vacant officers, including those of the President, may be assigned to other willing officers by the Executive Committee. However, the voting rights of the Junior Member of Council and Governing Body at college Council or Governing Body cannot be assumed by another officer. For this purpose, Section I.14 does not apply.
5. Required By-election. If the Trustee positions explicitly enumerated in Article IV Section 6 become vacant, such vacancies may only be filled through a by-election.
6. Quorum. For the purposes of determining a quorum for meeting or on-line votes, the number of Officers of the Society shall not include any Officer positions that are currently vacant or on a leave of absence.
7. Leaves of Absence. An Officer may take a leave of absence not exceeding 60 days duration, in the Research Term only, by making a written declaration to the Secretary setting out the start and finish dates of their leave. This shall be permitted only if the Officer expects to be away from Cambridge for the duration of the leave of absence. A leave of absence shall terminate on the date specified by the Officer or on the first day of Michaelmas term, whichever is soonest.
8. Functions and Duties of Committee. The Executive shall oversee the operation of the Graduate Bar and the use of the Graduate Suite.
9. Functions and Duties of Officers. The functions and duties of the Officers are defined in Appendix A, which forms part of these Standing Orders. Additionally, every Officer shall contribute to the organisation and running of Freshers' Week.
10. Short-term Delegation of Functions and Duties In the rare event that an Officer is unable to carry out the functions and duties assigned to them in Appendix A, for example due to temporary absence from Cambridge or pressing academic commitments, they may delegate them to another member of the Executive Committee on a very short-term basis, except that the Junior Member of Council and Governing Body is unable to delegate their attendance and voting rights at college Council or Governing Body, and the President is unable to delegate attendance at Governing Body. For this purpose, Section I.14 does not apply.

11. Reporting. All officers shall make a report to the Members of the Society at each scheduled General Meeting concerning their activities since the last scheduled General Meeting.
12. Subcommittees. The Executive reserves the right to form subcommittees as it sees fit, and to determine the composition, terms of reference and other conditions of these subcommittees.
13. Removal of Officers. Officers may be removed by calling a referendum putting the question: ‘Shall x be deprived of office?’, where x is the name of the Officer in question. Whenever such a referendum is requested or required, the Officer shall be given 24 hours’ notice in which to resign without the referendum being called. If the referendum is successful, the Officer is removed with immediate effect.
14. Holding Multiple Positions Forbidden. Members may not hold more than one position on the Executive Committee at any one time.
15. Code of Conduct. The President shall maintain a document called the Officer Code of Conduct (hereinafter referred to as the Code). The Code shall outline the standard of behaviour expected of Officers of the Executive, with particular regard to transparent use of Society funds, situations in which conflicts of interest may arise, and benefits received in the course of fulfilling the duties of Officer positions. Amendments to the Code shall be proposed by the President and ratified by the Executive, and shall be publicised to the Membership on ratification.
16. Misconduct. On determining that another Officer has breached the Code, the President must issue a Caution to that Officer; on determining that the President has breached the code, the Chair must issue a Caution to the President. Cautions shall be announced at the next Meeting of the Society, at which time they may be annulled by a vote of the Executive.
17. Deterrents to Misconduct. Should the same Officer be issued with a third Caution, the Executive must at the Meeting at which the third Caution is announced vote by secret ballot on whether to call a referendum to remove that Officer. Should no such referendum be held, and that same Officer be issued with a fourth Caution, a referendum to remove that Officer shall be called automatically. For these purposes, calling a referendum to remove an Officer shall reset the number of Cautions received by that Officer.

2. Women's Officer. Only Members who self-define as women shall be eligible to stand as candidates for the Women's Officer.
3. Quorum. An election shall only be valid if the number of votes cast exceeds one-fifth of the number of Members eligible to vote. If the election is not valid, a further election shall be held at the earliest possible date. Whenever several elections are held concurrently, if (one of) the concurrent election(s) having the highest quorum burden achieves validity, then all of the concurrent elections shall also be valid; this provision does not apply for the elections which return members of the College Governing Body or Council, which must always achieve validity individually.

For the election of these two Officers, in case of an incompatibility between the procedure for electing Officers of the Executive as specified in these Standing Orders and procedure for electing junior members to the College Governing Body and Council as specified in the College's Statutes and Ordinances, the procedure specified by College's Statutes and Ordinances shall take precedence.
